Workpro

Workpro HR case management software helps you better manage Employee Relations casework such as Grievance, Disciplinary, Long Term Sick Leave or Employment Tribunal cases.

It could save your HR team hours (and £ thousands), enabling them to more effectively track and process ER caseload to deliver great service.

Workpro is workflow-based software that ensures compliance with procedures and timescales, gives managers greater control and helps them spot recurring issues. With 24 ER case types built-in, it is quick to deploy but also highly customisable.

Correspondence and documentation templates; tasks and reminders; reporting and analysis...the whole case secure in one place!

Workpro is developed by Edinburgh-based company CAS, a well-established supplier of case management solutions to private and public sector organisations.
